

Anne Scott Fund Application Form

The Olave Baden-Powell Society welcomes applications from young women for financial assistance, where the project or activity concerned directly promotes the Mission and Goals of the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts.

Guidance for Applicants

1. Preference will be given to young women, or projects and activities involving young women under the age of 30 years.
2. Documents describing the Olave Baden-Powell Society's grant aid criteria and grant aid procedures are attached. Please read them before completing the application form.
3. Applications can be submitted at any time to the OB-PS Office, at the World Bureau. Applications will be considered by Members of the Olave Baden-Powell Society Board, and applicants will be informed of the outcome as soon as possible.
4. To enable applications to be considered in good time, they should be received at least 3 months before the event.
5. Assistance will only be given for Girl Guide/Girl Scout activities/events, delivered by or in collaboration with the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts (WAGGGS) or at one of the World Association's five World Centres (Sangam – India, Our Cabana – Mexico, Our Chalet – Swiss, Pax Lodge – London, UK or 5th World Centre – Africa).
6. It will help if as much evidence as possible accompanies the application. In particular, evidence will be required to show that the project complies with all the criteria.
7. All applications should identify how much of the costs relate to travel and accommodation.
8. As a condition of receiving a grant, you will be required to send us a feedback form about your special activity including photos, within 3 months of the activity.
9. Once an application has been accepted, you will be sent an 'OB-PS Scholar' pin. You are invited to wear this to show that you are being supported by OB-PS, and to help you publicise that these grants are available to young women

If any assistance is required to complete the form, please contact the OB-PS office, where staff will be pleased to help.

Please return completed form, by post or email to:
